VILLA IS DRIVEN BACK

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH]
VERA CRUZ, May 23.—General Obregon, in a report received today, says that after the troops of General Villa attacked his men at Trinidad, he drove Villa back to Leon, capturing or killing two thousand of the Villa forces. The fight continued for sixteen hours Saturday. Generals Villa and Angeles, according to the report, were moving south from Leon to strike Obregon's flank. Obregon says the move failed utterly, and that Villa lost many officers. Obregon puts his own losses at two hundred. He says he is pursuing Villa northward.

GUARD OFFICERS HERE SCHOOL BEGINS TODAY

To attend the sessions of the annual course of instruction, officers of the National Guard of Arizona poured into the city on every train yesterday, and by nightfall over a hundred were established in their barracks at the fair grounds.

The regular work of the course, which will begin this morning, includes exercises in field work, infantry drill, engineering problems, tactical problems and lectures on the care of guard property, camping, and a host of other subjects of importance to guard officers. The object of the course is not only to instruct the officers and sergeants, but also to fit them for the work of instructing when they return to their commands. The men are quartered in the Maricopa wing of the agricultural building, and the relief maps and other equipment being housed in the creamery building. Captain Cromwell Stacey, instructor inspector N. G. A., Adjutant General Harris and Captain Oscar P. Temple, assistant adjutant general, are among the lecturers.

ARCHBISHOP IS OUT

tive body was unanimous. It is printed as an appendix and bears the signatures of the archbishops of York, Armagh, and Jamaica, the bishops of Winchester, Exeter, Gibraltar, Exeter, and the bishops of the Holy Communion. The archbishop of the Holy Communion at Kikuyu, He says that it was not intended at Kikuyu to inaugurate a system of free inter-communion, and he adds that the question of such open communion is entirely independent of the question of temporary or occasional "hospitality" towards individuals deprived for a time of the ministrations of their own church. The archbishop writes: "I believe that we shall act rightly, and that the wisest and strongest missionaries believe that we shall act rightly, in abstaining at present from such services as the closing service held at Kikuyu, now that in a world of quick tidings and of ample talk they are shown to be open to the kind of misunderstandings which have arisen."

vice tendered by the consultative body, declared as to the first that, granted the authority of the Diocesan Bishop be maintained and that the preacher, whether he be minister or layman, be duly accredited by the bishop, he sees "no reason to restrict the freedom of a bishop in the mission field as to those whom he may invite to address his people, or as to the sanction which may be given to a priest or deacon of his Diocese to address in their own buildings, on due invitation given, Christians, who belong to other denominations."

Similarly, on the second point the archbishop says that it is in his judgment right to leave large responsibility with the Diocesan Bishop. He writes: "Looking carefully at present-day facts and conditions, I have no hesitation in saying that in my opinion a Diocesan Bishop acts rightly in sanctioning, when circumstances seem to call for it, the admission to Holy Communion of a devout Christian man, to whom the ministrations of his own church are for the time inaccessible, and who, as a baptized person, desires to avail himself of the opportunity of communicating at one of our altars."

On the other hand, with regard to members of the church of England receiving the Holy Communion at the hands of ministers not episcopally ordained, the archbishop denies that the occasional admission of non-episcopally ordained ministers to the altar is a matter of opinion, or a matter of expediency, or a matter of expediency. In his view the result of giving such advice in general terms would be not only to create perplexity in administration, but to hamper and retard such measure.

AMUSEMENTS THE LION HAS ANOTHER MASTERPICTURE TODAY

"The Outcast" from the pen of Thos. Nelson Page, and featuring Mae Marsh and Robert Harron in the leading roles is the Mutual Masterpiece attraction at the Lion theatre today and is said to be a wonderful photoplay. It is an intense drama with touches of humor and pathos, intermingled in such a way as to reach every human emotion. Of Mae Marsh and Robert Harron, it is needless to dwell as they are so well known through their excellent work in other big features, but they have never been better than in "The Outcast." Thomas Nelson Page, the author, is at present the American ambassador to Italy and is a celebrated writer. "The Outcast" is in four parts and will be shown at the Lion theatre today and tomorrow, the first show beginning at 10 A. M. and continuing throughout the day. "The Outcast" is recommended by the Lion management as one of the best of the Mutual Masterpiece productions.

Riverside Park

A long list of good things is programmed for Riverside this week. Today there is the big picnic of the Caledonian society to celebrate Empire day, the British holiday and for this a special program has been prepared that bridges with real novelties.

This celebration falls on the regular mother's day and that means that all women and all children under fifteen years of age will be admitted to the park free until four o'clock this afternoon. The pool was emptied and given its regular Sunday scrubbing last night and today it will be full early in the afternoon, so there will be good swimming for all. In the movie theater there will be a complete change of bill. It is "Beginner's Night" at the dancing pavilion and from 7:30 until 8:30 there will be free instruction in the new dances by W. L. King, the competent dancing master who is in charge of the floor.

The Girl of the Golden West

"The Girl of the Golden West," Belasco's wonderful drama of the Golden State was shown at the Arizona theatre last night and proved equally as popular in screen form as it had previously been on the dramatic stage. Produced by the Lasky studios under the supervision of Mr. Belasco, the picture showed that the wizard mind producer had lost nothing of its cunning. In the picture the story had just the wonderful setting that nature had provided for it, and Master Van Buren, the dramatic Robert and Houdini Peters appeared to excellent advantage in the three leading roles.

It is beautifully staged and has all the interest of the original drama. It will be shown at the Arizona theatre again tonight.

Fielding Day at Empress

"The Accusing Hand" a strong two part drama with Romaine Fielding in the leading role will be the main feature at the Empress theatre tonight. Monday and Tuesday are Fielding days and this week the Lasky picture is the big feature of the program.

A three part Vitagraph special is another big thing on the bill and in it Edith Story appears supported by an all star cast. It is a story of life and sea and is fully up to the Vitagraph standard.

"Mr. Jarr and the Lady Reformer" is the Vitagraph comedy and another laughmaker. "Legal Light" from the Selig studios completes a seven reel program of great merit.

Columbia Has a Real Winner

Without doubt one of the great stories seen at the Columbia in film form in many days is that which has its initial offering last night, "Perpetua," while of a light trend of plot is truly entrancing. The title role is very capably handled by Miss Vivian Martin one of the World Film corporations very best leading women, or rather leading girls, for women, is no more than a ship of girl, but in a story of this character it is obvious that the refined artistry of Miss Martin finds adequate scope.

This beautiful girl shines in every film in which she is seen, but when the entire framework of the play sonality stands out all the more pleasing and distinctly.

"Perpetua" might easily be classed as one of the very best things which the World company has turned out, and will certainly favorably compare with any of the films which have as yet been shown in the city. As far as good pictures art concerned how ever its setting to be the habit for the Columbia to offer the best that the market affords not only as to films alone, for the house is easily all that could be desired as far as comfort is concerned, cushioned chairs and a modern cooling system playing no small part in this.

"The Rounders" at Coliseum

This is change night at the Coliseum and House and Allard's Broadway Honeymooners will put on a brand new bill "The Rounders" which Mr. Billy House states is the biggest laugh producer yet produced. He says it is something quite new in the tabloid musical comedy line and promises many surprises, and that all of them will be pleasant. The scene is laid at Riverside Park, and the bill opens with a "Carnival Time" song that is a genuine hummer. The musical numbers and dances are all new and Jimmy Allard, Billy House, Florence Lane, Hazel Wilson and Bobby Fitzsimmons all have good parts.

The business of the Coliseum during the past few days has been of the record breaking variety and as crowds don't flock to a dead one it is evident that "Old Ironsides" is very much alive.
